What is figurative language?

What are examples of figurative language?

How do you determine the speaker in a poem?

How can images/graphics/animation tell a story?

How are poems and speeches structured?

Conceptual:

How do authors give words meaning and power?

What techniques do author's use to create meaning or create an argument?

Debatable:

Does an author's use of language and symbols in texts influence the beliefs and values of an individual?

What is our role and responsibility in the society in which we live?

How can we facilitate change and promote fairness?

MYP Objectives	Assessment Tasks
What specific MYP objectives will be addressed during this unit?	Relationship between summative assessment task(s) and statement of inquiry:	List of common formative and summative assessments.
MYP Criterion A: Analyzing Students will analyze the content, context, language, style, and structure of a text. Students will analyze the relationships among texts MYP Criterion B: Organization Students will use organizational structures that serve the context and intention.	Students are constantly and consistently confronted with information be it as written text, a visual image, or a combination of both and students need to be able to recognize, identify, and understand how organizations are both trying to convey ideas and influence student thinking and action. This unit is designed to empower students to live in such a world while also making them producers of text that have power and influence and meaning.	Module 3 Formative Assessment - Speech Analysis Students will read Lincoln's Second Inaugural address and excerpts from "I Have a Dream" and address the speaker's purpose, point of view, sentence structure, word choice. MYP Objectives/GSE Standards Addressed: RI.8.2, RI.8.4, RI.8.6 MYP Criteria: N/A Published: 12,2023 Resources, materials, assessments not linked to SGO or unit planner will be reviewed at the local school level.

Students will organize opinions and ideas in a coherent and logical manner.

MYP Criterion C: Producing Text

Students will produce texts that demonstrate insight, imagination and sensitivity while exploring and reflecting critically on new perspectives and ideas arising from personal engagement with the creative process.

Students will make stylistic choices in terms of linguistic, literary and visual devices, demonstrating awareness of impact on an audience.

Students will select relevant details and examples to develop ideas.

MYP Criterion D: Using Language

Students will use correct grammar, syntax, and punctuation.

Students will use varied sentence structure and forms of expression

Module 3 Intro to Poetry Pre-Assessment

Students will complete this to assess current knowledge of poetic elements. Data from this assessment will be used to create small groups in order to provide relevant explicit instruction. This will not be for a grade.

MYP Objectives/GSE Standards Addressed: RL.8.4 and RL.8.5

MYP Criteria: N/A

Formative Assessment - Analyzing Author's Craft in the Poem "Solitude": Allusions, Text Structure, Connections to Traditional Themes, and Use of Figurative Language In order to demonstrate their understanding of different text structures and how these structures contribute to the meaning of the texts, students will analyze the meaning and structure of the poem "Solitude" by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Students will analyze the meaning and structure.

MYP Objectives/GSE Standards Addressed: RL.8.4, RL.8.5, RL.8.9, and L.8.5a.

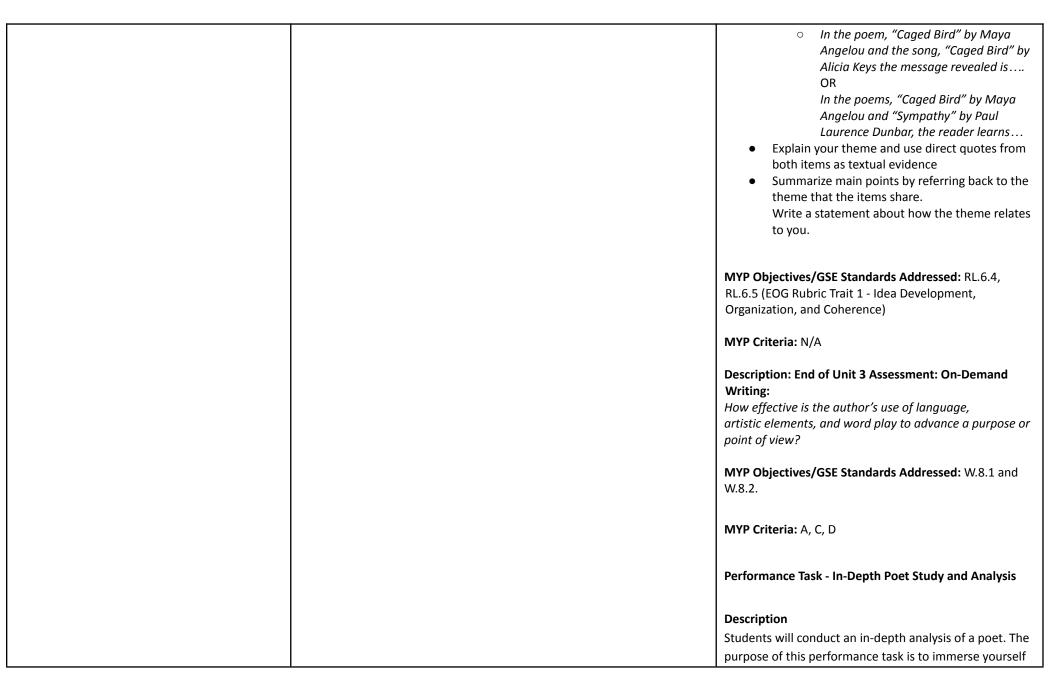

MYP Criteria: A, B, C

Description: Mid- Unit 2 Analysis Constructed Responses:

Multiple Choice and Constructed Response Choose 2 of the 3 items and write a brief theme analysis. Create one thematic statement for your selected items. Remember, to include the TAG (Title, Author, & Genre) in your topic sentence. Be sure to provide textual evidence from both texts that support your theme. Your response must be at least 6 sentences.

Possible Outline:

• Topic Sentence - write a thematic statement:

	into the work of one poet in order to better understand his or her style. Part One: Biographical Data Select a poet (See suggested list below.) and research biographical information. Be sure to use at least 2 sources; do not rely on one source for your information. After reading all biographical data, using first person, write as though you are the poet: tell about your life and poetry. Include an image of your poet.
	 Part Two: Poetry Read at least 5 poems by your poet. Be sure to list the titles of the poems you select. Conduct a poetry analysis on at least 3 of the poems. You can use the 4-Step Poetry Guide or the TP-CASTT format. Be sure to include the full text of each poem. Respond to the following prompt: In a constructed response, discuss the poetic style of your poet. Does the poet write about similar topics? Based on the lifetime of your poet, are their poems reflective of the era? What do you enjoy most about the poems? What critiques do you have?
	Part Three: Original Poem Write an original poem in the same style as that of your poet. OR Write an original poem honoring your selected poet. Consider the following poetry writing formats:

ABC Poem - In an ABC poem, each line of the poem begins with a letter in the alphabet, starting with A and moving in order through Z.
 Acrostic Poem - Acrostic is a form of poetry where the first or last letters of each line create a name, word, or phrase. You can find these words by looking vertically at the beginning or end of the lines.
o Bio Poem - A bio poem is used to reveal information to the reader about the poet.
 Concrete Poem - A concrete poem is written in a way that the words create the shape of the subject of the poem.
rt Four: Oral Presentation
 Prepare a 2-3 minute presentation.
Include all of the following:
 Biographical data – Speak in first person as though you are the poet
Use at least one prop that symbolizes something about the poet or the poem.
 Show a picture of the poet.
 Poetry Presentation – Read 1 poem aloud to the class. – Guide the class through an analysis of the poem.
o Reflection – In your own words, explain
what you learned about yourself, poetry, and your poet during the course of the project.
